

Term: “Body Paragraphs”

Definition:

Body paragraphs are individual paragraphs that address one topic and are not the introduction (framing a paper) or the conclusion (wrapping up the paper). Frequently, these will be in between these two framing paragraphs, but some writing will consist of just body paragraphs that are not linked together and do not have a shared introduction and conclusion.